In September 2010 Taylor Patterson was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia. In April 2012, Taylor relapsed and was getting ready for a bone marrow transplant and the fight of her life. At the age of 12, Taylor became a legend in the hearts of thousands of people. In just a few days Taylor taught us the word, love. She loved God, her parents, siblings, friends, and total strangers. She never went a day without smiling. She knew how to love. She brought a small community together and added thousands of friends in the process. On August 11, 2012, we said good-bye to sweet Taylor. We say good-bye on this earth and Jesus is welcoming her with open arms into the gates of Heaven. She walks with Jesus. Taylor has no more pain, tears, or sickness. As she walks in the Garden and as she runs in the fields of flowers chasing butterflies and playing and loving her eternal life, she will never be forgotten by her family, friends, and those total strangers whose hearts she touched. This poem is dedicated to Taylor. If you think of her please smile, for she would smile for you. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN.
