The firm has now an eminently fine reputation throughout the country. Upright dealings and first class goods make a strong combination, and the popularity of this establishment is certainly well deserved. They are sole manufacturers of several valuable specialties for the mill trade. Their goods are shipped to all parts of the United States and Canada. Agencies for their goods NGLY. are established in various cities of the country salesmen also cover New England. Mr. Jacobs has been a director of the First National Bank since 1892. He was the first president of the Danielson Board of Trade and secretary of the Village Improvement society. He was warden of the borough in 1887. He is president of the Riverview Association and has been the treasurer of the Westfield Congregational Sunday school the past thirteen years. He has also been one of the deacons of the church, and a member of the society committee. Mr. Jacobs has been an extensive traveler. He spent the summer of 1892 in Europe. On May 3, 1882, he married Clara E, daughter of Walter Barber of New Haven. They have had five children: Walter F. , Alice M, Marjorie J. , Laura G. . and Charlotte C. , deceased. Mr. Jacobs is one of Danielsons foremost enterprising citizens, and has done much to further the boroughs advancement. He was a popular member of the House in 95, in which he was chairman of Committee on New Towns and Probate...
