Excerpt from The Angevins and the Charter (1154-1216): The Beginning of English Law, the Invasion of Ireland and the Crusades Our belief is that the books may profitably be used by all grades of historical students between the standards of fourth form boys in secondary schools and undergraduates at Universities. What differentiates students at one extreme from those at the other is not so much the kind of subject-matter dealt with, as the amount they can read into or extract from it.
