Excerpt from The Life, Character, and Writings Francis Lieber: A Discourse Delivered Before the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, January 13, 1873 Which regiment should we choose? Of course one which was garrisoned near the enemy's frontier, so that we should be sure not to have a peaceable campaign in a distant reserve. There was a regiment among the troops near the frontier of France, which enjoyed a particularly high and just reputation; its name was Colberg, bestowed in honor of its valiant defence of the fortress of Colberg in the year 1806 - the only Prussian fortified place at that wretched time which did not surrender to the French. It was composed of brave and steady Pomeranians, a short, broad shouldered, healthy race; in more than twenty ranged engagements during the campaign of 1813 - 14 had they shown themselves worthy of their honorable name. My brother and myself selected this regiment. When the day of the enlistment of the volunteers arrived, we went to my father and said: Well, then, we are going; is it with your consent...
