Excerpt from Bookkeeping System for Delco-Light Dealers: A Descriptive Booklet So as to indicate that these entries, when recorded on a separate page of the Sales Register, or immediately following the month s entries in the Sales Register of all Customers Invoices, should be reversed in effect from the manner in which sales invoices are recorded; that is, the value of goods returned from a customer is treated as a credit to the customer and a debit to sales, as the case may be. The other entries with reference to commissions, cost of goods sold and inventory accounts, would also need to be reversed from the manner in which invoices are entered. Office copies of this form may conveniently be filed on Shannon arch files. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
