Excerpt from Success in Dental Practice: A Few Suggestions Relative to the Most Approved Methods of Conducting a Practice The charge has frequently been made that dentists as a class are seriously at fault with regard to the methods employed in the business management Of their affairs. Probably it would be more exact to say that the real charge is that they have no method. But Whether this be em tirely true or not, the fact still remains that there are few dentists whose affairs are so conducted that they may not be greatly improved by the application Of good business methods.
