Clay McAlister is on the trail of three men who robbed a stagecoach his fiance was traveling on and caused her death. He trails them to El Paso, Texas where he runs into an old acquaintance of his, who just so happens to be the head of the gang who robbed the stagecoach his fiance was on. When he learns that there is a large money shipment from the east coming to the bank in El Paso, he figures out that is why the gang is in town. When another gang shows up, things begin to get very interesting. With both gangs set on getting the money there is only one way it can be settled, and that is by gunsmoke. A good read for the western fan.
