

Hit Rock Bottom (Paperback)

By Alexander Yelanchik

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Russian . Brand New Book. When hormones and barbiturates are raging in your blood and early-summer sun is shining through a window - the world is spinning around you. You are young, there is nowhere to hurry. You love, you are loved and this passion is worth a life to you. Either your life or anybody else's. It's not about aggression, it's about being evil for good's sake. Seems so. You wish good upon everybody. Yourself first, of course. At any cost. Live fast, die young. Stagnation USSR of the 80s, a crazy gang of friends burning through life. Sex, drugs and rock-n-roll. Parties, psych ward, army service. Crazy patchwork of events, jokes, stories, anecdotes. And death, always walking nearby. Just reach out to it. This novel is a combination of cynical realism and weightless nostalgia. Memories of crazy years, few subplots - all with the irony of a bystander or the main character of the strangest events. This is macho literature: adult language, erotic scenes, violence of everyday life. and subconscious desire of love. Reader's discretion is advised. Not for those of weak hearts or...
