This second dose of inspiring stories from the Bible can transform your personal story. Meditating on Biblical truths leads to prosperity and success. The Lord is waiting to be as gracious to you as He was in the lives of the characters examined in this book. Six key strengths will be explored within these pages to help you grow emotionally and spiritually: -Attain the patience of Job that will allow you to wait upon the Lord and His timing -Possess a wisdom as great as Solomon s through mining for the gold found in the book of Proverbs -Demonstrate the peace of Mary, the Savior s mother, as opposed to the unrest and violence in King Herod s soul -Embrace with all your heart the enthusiasm and commitment that the disciple Peter displayed with all his heart -Grasp the joy of expressing gratitude like Mary Magdalene and the cleansed leper -Exhibit the happiness found by Paul on a Damascus road and Zacchaeus in a sycamore tree The narratives of these colorful Biblical characters teach us that we can be used greatly by God despite our misunderstandings, failures, and limitations. In encountering Jesus, we, like each of these characters, can enter God s eternal, everlasting story.
