Excerpt: . . . 11 fact is that, at the grassroots, a number of our constituents are calling for revaluation of currency. They do so perhaps in the hope that something can occur that would stem the tide of jobs going to China, sometimes jobs brought about by American investment, an expansion of plants there, and an imbalance of trade that they feel ultimately will be to our detriment because it is so large. Why the investment in China and the huge outpouring of American capital into that country Mr. K. Well, there are many reasons, obviously, Mr. Chair-ELLY man. There are also some obvious imbalances - India, I think, frequently notes to us that American investment is considerably less in India than in China, and the same with Russian Federation. I think as these countries develop and their economies become more attuned internationally, this is likely to switch. Additionally,...
