Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt from The Christ of the Church: Sermons, Lectures and Illustrations The man of Tarsus, breathing threatening and slaughter, was on his way to Damascus, When Jesus appeared unto him and said, Why do you persecute me Who are you was the reply. I am Jesus, Whom you persecute. Paul was startled. When had he persecuted Jesus To his wonder and amazement, he realized that Jesus is living and is identified With the church, and that to persecute the church is to persecute the Christ of the church. From that time until his death he had but two themes, the church, and the Christ of the church. He ransacked his vocabulary of words to find figures to exalt, adorn and beautify the church. In his most matchless ights of oratory, his theme was the church. He saw the church as the household of God, the whole family in heaven and earth, the temple of God, the body of Christ, the pillar of truth, and last the loving bride of the Redeemer. It dawned upon him that to ignore the church is to ignore the Christ of the church, and to persecute the church is to persecute the Christ. Happy are we if we see these great truths as Paul saw them. I have no sympathy With the sentiment that applauds the name of Christ and hisses the church. To hiss the church is to hiss the Christ of the church. Neither do I have any patience with that other sentiment that is often manifested in some of our union revivals, that a man can be a Chris tian and not in the church. It is nothing un usual to hear men say, Oh, yes,...
