Pauppukeewiss frankly told him the secret, and repeated the precautions which were necessary to ensure success. Manabozho determined to profit by his information, and as soon as he could, he set out to visit the icy castles. All things happened as he had been told. The spirits seemed propitious, and told him to fill and carry. He accordingly filled his sacks with ice and snow, and proceeded rapidly toward the hill of transmutation. But as he ran he heard voices calling out behind him, thief! thief! He has stolen fish from Kabiboonoka, cried one. Mukumik! mukumik! Take it away! Take it away! cried another. In fine his ears were so assailed by all manner of opprobrious terms, that he could not avoid turning his head, to see who it was that thus abused him. Pg 126 But his curiosity dissolved the charm. When he came to visit his bags next morning, he found them filled with ice and snow. In consequence, he is condemned every year, during the month of...
