

The Only Real Fun in Life (Paperback)

By Peter R Salajka

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Chuck is a bored college student who's ready to kill or die at any moment. He works as an armed security officer for the federal government where he watches the same people, work their same jobs, in their same offices, every same day. He believes his repetitive dead-end job is, on a smaller scale, symbolic of America as a whole, where people work dead-end careers all their lives and dream of some imaginary next job, while slaving to death for an American dream they never achieve. Furthermore, he sees laws, escapist entertainment, and religion as intellectual parasites which swallow up the desires and ambitions of most Americans, conning them into lives of senseless repetition, underachievement, and boredom. In the past he's escaped his own repetitive life only through writing screenplays. But now, believing that the only way one can get the most out of life is by breaking codes of morality, laws, and religion, he decides to commit murder to demonstrate that he is entitled to far more liberty than most people-and no God is there to stop him. He...
