Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reports of Ten-Year Survey Committee on the Work of the Massachusetts Commission for the Blind, 1906-1916 Mr. Burritt commends the work of the Commission for the Blind as a bureau of information, and at the same time accentuates the experience of the Commission in aiding home industries for the blind and in carrying on workshops for the employment of the blind, proving conclusively that home industries have so far failed to pay a living wage. It has occurred to me that the aid given to home industries for the blind may have been largely given to women.
