

Catalyst: A Novel of Alien Contact (Paperback)

---

By Nina Kiriki Hoffman

Tachyon Publications, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. This psychologically complex science-fiction novel focuses on a sensitive adolescent making the difficult transition from childhood into adolescent sexuality and adult society. A boy, fleeing a bullying classmate, inadvertently makes first contact with a race of aliens who live beneath the surface of his planet. Exploring such subjects as the dynamics of dysfunctional families and human society's greed-based political system, the book has eerie psychological undercurrents and tells an emotionally compelling and surprisingly sensual story.
