Taylor & Francis Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Teaching English, Language and Literacy (3rd Revised edition), Dominic Wyse, Russell Jones, Helen Bradford, Mary Anne Wolpert, 'This book is comprehensive, up-to-date, critical and authoritative. It is also, above all, well written. It will undoubtedly become standard reading for the next generation of teachers in training and practising teachers will also learn a great deal from dipping into its contents.' - David Wray, Professor of Literacy Education, University of Warwick '[A] well organised and comprehensive guide to the teaching of English and the teaching of language' Margaret Mallett - Emeritus Fellow of The English Association Are you looking for one book that covers every aspect of the teaching of English at primary level? Now fully updated, this third edition of Teaching English, Language and Literacy includes brand new chapters on children's literature and reading comprehension. Rooted in research evidence and multidisciplinary theory, this book is an essential introduction for anyone learning to teach English from the early years to primary school level. The authors draw on their research, scholarship and practice to offer advice on: * developing reading, including choosing texts, and phonics teaching * improving writing, including grammar and punctuation * language and speaking and listening * planning and assessing * working effectively with multilingual pupils * understanding historical developments in the subject * the latest thinking in educational policy and practice * the use of multimedia * maintaining good home-school links * gender and the teaching of English language and literacy All the chapters include clear examples of practice, coverage of key issues, analysis of research, and reflections on national policy to encourage the best possible response to the demands of national curricula. Each chapter also has a glossary to explain terms and gives suggestions for further reading....
