Paperback. Condition: New. 248 pages. The twelve stories that comprise the Kantaberry Tales are about the people and events that have helped to identify this part of the Bahamas known as North Eleuthera as the most unique and diverse place within the country. From tales of shipwrecks and pirates, of child prodigies and teenage pregnancies, of Haitian voodoo and mail order brides, theres a story here that will make you think, laugh or cry, but a story that you will remember and want to share with a friend. Whether you were born here or just visiting, you will recognize the characters that come to life within these pages, youll nod your head in agreement and say to yourself I know who that is or that could be me. Did Calico Jack actually marry Annie Bonnie and did they spend their honeymoon on Royal IslandWere Hector Fernandezs grandparents shipwrecked on the Devils BackboneWas Emily Pinders father the pharmacist who sold the condoms to her boyfriend JackDo David and Melanie still collect the interest on the 9 million dollarsAnd how could Desmond Newbolds sister be so deceitfulJust between you and I, theres hardly a word of truth in any of the stories but I know that many of you will believe every word thats written. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
