VIVA CISCO

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 231 x 155 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Nearly true tales of a really cool parrot Viva Cisco is a trilogy of funny stories for kids at the Age 10-13 reading level. All three tales unfold in a land called Topopootl, which lies in a hidden valley deep in the heart of Mexico. Because of its seclusion, the inhabitants have created a society without the benefit of human contact, and they don t seem to have missed out on anything important in the absence of that dubious blessing. In fact, they probably have more pure merriment and boisterous excitement than any human community could ever conceive. Much of the credit for that, though, must be laid at the feet of Topopootl s most.uh. stimulating citizen, one Cisco las Verde Arara del Gucigalpa. Aka, Cisco the Parrot. His is an ego burning brightly, and his quest is for nothing less than becoming the most notable dude in all Topopootl. In Am I Famous Yet?, he wends his fractured way from being the Answer Man in Topopootl s public library, through a very public failure in Show Biz, a humiliating defeat in Anything Goes Wrestling (at the hands of two little cockroaches), a Mayday ; attempt at a high-altitude record for Parrots and, finally, to opening a very weird business; The Word Man-whose motto is, Learn a big word and impress your friends.- The reader is sure to be spellbound as Cisco makes the sale of one of his Deluxe models: the word, extracurricular - a big impresser. In Cisco-PI, he combines the skills of Inspector Clouseau and Barney Fife in tackling Topopootl s first and only crime wave, a rash of burglaries. In a dazzling display...
