Reviews

This book may be worth purchasing. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Bloomsbury Academic. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 224 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.1in. x 0.7in. and explores the personnel structure within the context of schools. It is aimed at the School Business Manager (SBM) to provide an overview of the different relationships they will form and manage in their day-to-day work. Where schools do not have an appointed School Business Manager, the role is instead fulfilled by the schools leadership team (e. g. Middle Managers, Bursars, Deputies and Headteachers) and this book will also act as a guide for these personnel. Internationally, school staffing structures are evolving within the context of schools as extended and community centers of learning. This means that, in addition to managing internal staff, SBMs will increasingly encounter other staff and professionals who work with schools. This new context demands alternative and innovative strategies to develop new working relationships. This book provides examples of such strategies. It has been written by and is based on the experiences of these other professionals, and through such case studies builds up a framework for action for School Business Managers. The book is divided into two sections: internal in-house professionals, including teaching assistants and administrators; and external professionals, including facilities management, the health professional, the education law officer, and those responsible for transport. Each chapter provides a brief overview of the...
