Trading Against Customers Orders. Legislation should be devised which will require of brokers the execution of orders given them so that, whether purchases or sales, they shall be purchases from or sales to independent persons, and so that in no case shall a broker employed to buy for his customer be the seller on his own account, or as broker of some other principal of his own without disclosure of the fact. If there are cases in which, because of the peculiarity of the stock and the dealings in it, a purchase cannot be made excepting through acquiring...
