

God, the World, and Me: Essays and Poems by (Paperback)

By Silvia Barger

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is Something Missing in Your Life? Could It Be God? We each need to find our own way in our search for God . but that does not mean we must walk alone. As we explore the byways and highways of finding our own personal faith, we walk a path traveled by many others and as we listen to their thoughts and revelations, our own ideas and needs become more clearly defined. One woman s journey, expressed in verse and in prose, accompanies you as you navigate the stepping-stones between organized religion, personal destiny, and a higher power. Join her in looking for God, interacting with God, making time for God, needing God, committing to God, and most important loving God.
