

Dimensions of Spirit: Talks on Conscious Living

By Stèphano Sabetti

Life Energy Media. Paperback. Condition: New. 214 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.7in. Most of us live out our lives under the deeply embedded assumptions that reason and ultimate reality or truth exist. We therefore attempt to apply our best understanding of that reason to all that we do in daily activities, personal relationships and our attempts to find some best fit in society, based on our capabilities and limitations. In Dimensions of Spirit, Stèphano challenges this so-called rational view to the world, suggesting that it's an illusory concept based on faulty assumptions contrived by our egos' misguided attempts to be loved. But these ego notions, tied to thoughts, can never point us to our essential, internal joy, happiness and spirituality in the world. Therefore, they cause us to settle for the illusions of being as important and successful as possible, based on so-called material achievements, possessions and some overall sense of desirability. Using some basic topics such as joy, happiness, and freedom, Stèphano directly though gently confronts our need for this dualistic and fearful lack of wholeness in our lives. He shows us that the answers to our essentialness are already in us and need to be expressed. The...
