Using this Companion book is the best way to read and comprehend the Constitution of the United States. It is the best approach you can take to understand our great form of government. This companion book works with any unabridged edition of the Constitution as freely available on the Internet. Brian Kellys The Constitution by Hamilton. Jefferson, Madison, et al. is a very suitable edition. It is available in paperback or download form from Amazon or Kindle. This Companion to the Constitution introduces the Constitution as an empirical guide for learning the basic law of the land. You will no longer need to rely on fake news or an outright lying media for your facts about what is right and wrong about government. This book describes an easy means of understanding the nuances about the processes leading to the Constitution and it presents the Constitution in a highly understandable, highly readable fashion. Just because several powerful people choose to ignore our rights and freedoms does not mean we must endure tyranny. The first step of course is to understand the most basic written precepts of the land. Using this Companion to read the Constitution is a must for every US citizen. You wont want to put this book down once you begin the learning process. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR,...
