It has been said that when we don't confront our past, our past sometimes will come back to confront us. Jackson has let his past personal affairs go unattended for far too long and now he has been forced to face his fears. Will Jackson now confess to Denise why he left her on their big day? Can Jackson face his demons now that he realizes his life has taken a drastic change for the worst? The clock is ticking, and Jackson only has a few more weeks before he ignites into his own self-destruction. This is a testament of how one man tries to overcome his inner demons and shattered past.
