

Delphies Trunk

By Patricia McCall Corlew

Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 412 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.5in. x 1.3in. DELPHIES TRUNK is an historical memoir biography circa World War II. The author has transcribed over 250 letters, V-Mails and postcards written mostly by her father to his mother, who kept them safely stowed in an old wooden trunk until she died in 1973. Through the correspondence, records and memorabilia found in her Grandmother's trunk and further historical research, the author weaves a vivid and unique story of a young college student from the mountains of Western North Carolina, his experiences as a Midshipman at Annapolis and as a young Naval Officer serving primarily in the Mediterranean during WWII. The author expands the story into a poignant biography of her father filled with loving memories and touching insights. The book is a daughter's grateful tribute to the father she lost so long ago, as well as a universal tribute to all Veterans of World War II. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
