Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book will teach you how to play Christian hymns , Christmas carols , the blues , and meditative chants on the 6-hole Native American flute, even if you have no previous knowledge of music. Also included is a section that shows you how to compose your own tunes on the flute, a sound that will harken back to that mysterious, ethereal music we sometimes associate with the Native American flute. With its huge content of easy to learn tunes, this book emphasizes the sacredness of the Native American flute. There are 142 TABs, (tunes), and tutorials in this 267-page book. The levels of difficulty range from very easy to deliciously challenging. The material is graded in difficulty so the rank beginner can painlessly work up to the more difficult tunes. Most of the hymns and carols will be familiar to you, so they are placed at the beginning of the book; playing the familiar is a great way to learn. Also included in this book are the previously mentioned meditative chants, those kinds of tunes the ancient shamans discovered on their flutes. Following the chants is an extensive blues section. The blues is its own genre, but sacred, nevertheless, and in this book it is considered as such. If you have always wanted to play the blues but didn t know how to begin, the comprehensive blues section will take you as deeply as you might want to go into the blues that so befits the Native American flute. From boogie riffs to sophisticated tunes, these tunes will make your jaw drop! In addition to the book itself are 142 MP3s where the au-thor has played every tablature in the...
