Harold Clemens is wandering alone one evening in a suburban street when he hears, not far off, a women scream. Minutes later he is picked up by a police car and weeks later he is convicted for a rape he never committed. When he comes out of prison he is a changed character. Clemens soon afterward meets, perhaps by coincidence, the women who had accused him, and their relation ship progresses to a startling conclusion. Light toning on inside covers, otherwise a sensational Mint copy in full color illustrated wraps.
