Reviews

This is the finest book i have got go through right up until now. I have got read and i also am confident that i am going to planning to read once again yet again in the future. You will not truly feel monotony at at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for about if you check with me).

Lulu.com, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A new class of young, technology-focused entrepreneurs have emerged in today s business world. For their age group and demographics, these young people have created wealth above and beyond anything in American history. The path to growing, and selling, a startup is already well-known. What has been almost completely ignored, up until now, is what young entrepreneurs should do after they sell their company. This book is a post-sale survival guide for those who have sold, or are considering selling, their company.
