Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Although this has been a very traumatic episode in my life (and especially our lives as a family), I have decided to put pen to paper. I m reliving the stress and pain of the experience, but I m doing it to warn other aspiring writers of the danger of what are termed vanity publishers in the trade. These unscrupulous people make promises to good and sensitive writers, and when these raised expectations are invariably never met, they dash hopes and can inflict terrible turmoil in people s lives. I went in to my writing in a very big way; so my life was turned on its head, when I found out that the publisher I was with weren t what they said they were. Time to start at the very beginning. I had started writing for fun some years back. Then in my job as an insurance manager here in Gisborne, New Zealand, I came across what I thought was some very good material. I found it very helpful in my personal life; so I thought I d put it down and share my thoughts with others to hopefully help readers. I started writing this work, whilst still working at my job. About a year and a half later, I finished the manuscript and HANDBOOK TO SURVIVE THE NINETIES was born. I was then made redundant from my job in a major restructuring operation throughout the country. I took my manuscript to Cape Town and showed it to a publisher there. They liked it; but after about two months said it was really nothing new (at that early stage of my writing career, I had not yet developed...
