U.S / University Of California Press, 2002. Soft cover. Condition: New. No Jacket. The discovery of long-forgotten letters and photos enabled the author to bring new recognition to this talented photographer whose life embodied the cultural and political values of many artists of the post-WWI generation. While working as an actress, Modotti met Edward Weston and began a romance with him around 1921. Her husband died in Mexico the next year, prompting her first visit to the country she would return to photograph in 1923, first as Weston's assistant and apprentice and later as his professional partner. She published her images, which included portrait studies, in the magazines Mexican Folkways and Formas. With 32 pages of photography. A 1st edition, in new condition. (382 pages & 15 of preface).
