Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Read about the original Oral History interview [Independent Research] with Mrs. Kathleen Squire [formerly James] known as Bunty or Bunty James who was the lifelong friend of Katie Doreen Illsley [Williams,] daughter of J.O. Williams, Owner of The Labrador Development Company Ltd which conducted logging operations in Port Hope Simpson 1934 - 1945. Bunty stayed with Katie Doreen in Port Hope Simpson, Labrador, Newfoundland, Canada for one year, 1935-36 and returned to stay for another year 1936-37. The aim of the interview was to find out as much as possible about the Labrador Development Company Ltd. in connection with the history of Port Hope Simpson and in particular any relevant information in connection with the two unexplained deaths of Arthur Eric Williams, the owner s eldest son and his infant daughter Erica D Anitoff Williams, the granddaughter of a Russian Count D Anitoff. John Edward Illsley, the grandson of J.O. Williams and his wife Sheila were also present and took a very active part in the interview. John had brought along the family archives [consisting of albums of photographs with documents and letters written at the time] to show Llewelyn and gave him an original Labrador Development Company Ltd. brochure undated, printed in Cardiff most likely in 1934 or 1935 that included two maps showing its timber concessions in Labrador and a Labrador Mining Company concession area. John then started to take Llewelyn through his collection of photographs and other documents with Mrs. Squire and Sheila contributing as we went along. I was particularly interested to hear from Bunty that John Hope Simpson purchased timber rights after the First World War although it was not clear whether or not they were for...
