The Collected Short Stories: Of Squoggle and Nothings and Sheepish Shenanigans.

By Philip Goddard

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the sublime to the delectably absurd - Enjoy the challenge! Here we have the Author s entire output of short stories - fourteen of them - though excluding a few of what he calls poem-stories , which latter will appear in his Collected Poetry volume. They were written from 1981 to 1992. This collection embraces a considerable diversity - from truly short to novella-length, from intently, purposefully, serious (albeit still with a certain humour) to the most preposterous overtly humorous romps, and from simple narrative to a labyrinthine symphonically organised dream-like creation (enter Nothing, Sweet Nothings!) All the stories were written with the intent of some sort of mental challenge for the reader - even to varying extents in the humorous pieces, and satire often raises its cheeky head, no matter whether the story is supposedly serious or humorous. This particular author has little interest in entertainment without some sort of positive function that goes beyond it, and the stories will be found to repeatedly challenge in all sorts of ways a whole range of habitual outlooks and attitudes among...

Reviews

This kind of pdf is every thing and made me seeking ahead plus more. It is probably the most amazing ebook i have study. I am quickly can get a enjoyment of reading a composed pdf.
