I've waited these many years, expecting some one or another would give a full and true account of it all, but little thinking it would ever come to be my task; for its not in my way. But seeing how much has been said about other parts and other peoples sufferings, while ours never so much as came in for a line of newspaper, I cant think its fair; and as fairness is what I always did like, I set to, very much against my will; while, on account of my empty sleeve, the paper keeps slipping and sliding about, so that I can only hold it quiet by putting the lead instand on one corner, and my tobacco-jar on the other. You see, Im not much at home at this sort of thing; and though, if you put a pipe and a glass of something before me, I could tell you all about it, taking my time like, it seems that wont do. I said: Why dont you write it down as I tell it, so as other people...
