It was formed chiefly by those German refugees, who - in 1848-49 - defeated in their brave struggle for liberty in their native country, transferred their allegiance to the American Republic. By nature as well as by education, implacable enemies of oppression in every shape, they enrolled themselves in the ranks of the party opposed to slavery in this country. And there is little doubt that the bulk of the German immigrants would have joined the Republican party, had they not been misled by the name Democracy borne by the opposing party, which in their German homes is synonymous with liberty and selfgovernment. It is the object of the German Republican Committee, thus called into existence to recall their countrymen from the ranks of the false to...
