Paperback. Condition: New. 302 pages. The acrid air is thick with smoke as she picks her way over the dead and dying. Her breathing is labored, punctuated with hacking coughs and piercing pain. The smell of death and charred flesh permeate her senses as deadly missiles explode all around her. She squints through the mist, focusing on the towers, and safety, just ahead. She turns and yells out to the person behind her, Another hundred yards and well be safe. Losing her footing, she trips and falls. Her cheekbone crashes hard into the ground, leaving the taste of warm blood in her mouth. Thus begins the tale of Mya Seward. Employed as a research technician for the US government working on Bible codes, Mya makes a remarkable discovery that is destined to change the world. Embedded within the text of the Torah, she discovers a computer code written thousands of years ago. On the surface, the computer code reveals the existence of a benevolent master race known as the lam that nurtured early man to ensure his survival. However, as she delves deeper into the computer program, she unlocks the fantastic secrets of this encrypted code, known as The Prophecies, and discovers the terrifying truth about the lam and their ultimate plan for humanity. Follow Mya and her small band of comrades as they engage in a fierce struggle and mortal combat in a race against time to save humanity. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
