His appetite, for example, but also those little accidents you inevitably get when you open your house up to something not really domesticated and the size of a mountain gorilla. The answer is for Harry to go and live in the shed. But how do you keep him a secret? The answer is you can t, cue the villain of the story Mr Riley, the intolerant and unpleasant next door neighbour who discovers the secret of the shed and slowly hatches a plot which even makes him smile, an event as rare as, well, as rare as hatching a dinosaur.
