Oh, but look, see how your light causes my crimson to glow, and fades the gray away. Then too, the light has entered my soul. I feel a new force within me, I feel exhilarant. And, Golden One, I feel that all these strange, new, beautiful sensations, come to me, through you. It is well I met you in the glade today, or I may never have known you; and now you must never leave my side. But your name have you a name other than beautiful, Golden One?
