

Women, Globalisation and Development

By Anil Bhuiamali, Bipul Malakar

Serials Publications, 2008. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. The goal of achieving equality, development and Peace depends largely on active participation of Men and Women in all facets of economic, social and Political life. This is true for all economies and Societies irrespective of their Level of development. Equal participation of men and women in decision-making provides a Balance in the society. This is very much needed to strengthen Democracy and. its proper functioning. The Wave of globalisation, as Rangarajan considers (Rangarajan, 2000), creates two major concerns. In the first place, it has intensified inequality in the distribution of Income among Countries and even within countries. Secondly, it is said that Globalisation weakens national sovereignty. This will deter countries taking independent Decisions in the Domestic matters. Due to globalisation and for a variety of reasons developed countries are not able to concentrate in some areas of production. It has thus treated a gap in Demand Supply situations and the gap has ultimately been filled in by the developing countries. The share of developing countries in total World output has increased remarkably from 17.9 per cent in 1988 to 41.2 per cent in 1995 and again to 40.4 per cent (excluding the...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
