THE MOSAIC HAGGADAH (PAPERBACK)

The Passover seder has been observed for centuries. And it continues to be an important annual gathering that binds families, friends, and the Jewish community together. In this book, David Silberman offers a new perspective on the Haggadah, the central text of the seder. He explains the history and meaning of the text, and offers a new way to think about the seder. He also offers a new way to think about the seder. He also offers a new way to think about the seder.
