When Norm Shepard, an ex-Marine, is found shot in the back only minutes away from the nations capital, this sets into motion an investigation that reveals a chilling discovery. The terrorists are already here-not only in Washington, D. C. but throughout the U. S. , the plan is set, and the biological agent is on its way. Emergency meetings are called, but it becomes clear that the U. S. is totally unprepared for a crisis of this magnitude. As the enormity of the threat and its ramifications set in, President Robert Hardy assigns Ross Chambers, an intelligence officer, another mission-the closest guarded secret in Washington-the Bluelight Project. The President, without the knowledge or consent of Congress, has been secretly funding the construction of underground protective relocation facilities.
