They are not worth the money they will cost us. Why! whoknow sbut this plaguy cursed Pirate may run away with us, and our money too? the fourth, a new married Man, it seems, told them what a wicked thing they were going to do. Tho , fays he, the Marquis de Fresne has made away with his Lady in that manner; his Example is not to be followed. And Heaven would infallibly avenge on us so black a crime, this frightened the other three out of their resolution. It takes up some time to go from the Port to Bayeux, and from thence back again to the Port; but it happily fell out that t they were taken in the morning, so that they could go, and come back the same day, else the Ladies must have lain on board the Pirate....
