

Wind Whisperer (Paperback)

By Theresa Jenner Garrido

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. An afternoon hike through the Olympic Peninsula rain forest turns into the adventure of a lifetime for two sixteen-year-old cousins, Hannah and Jonah. The splendor of Olympic National Park beckons, and the cousins are eager to explore. The trails take them deep into a primeval forest of gigantic Sitka spruce, Douglas fir, and western red cedar. Like a scene out of Middle Earth, one particular behemoth stands as a monument to a time before time began. Jonah finds a small totem-a Native American artifact-wedged deep in the tree roots. Searching for more treasures, he climbs the gigantic roots and disappears into a hollowed spot on the massive trunk. Hannah, left alone in an eerie primordial solitude, calls for her cousin to return but only silence replies. When a strange mist begins swirling and ebbing around the lichen covered tree trunk, Hannah circles the tree, looking for Jonah, but he is gone. Convinced he is playing a practical joke on her, she heads back to camp. However, it isn't long before she realizes she is lost. Nothing looks familiar. It is...
