The Rev.E. S.Lines, of the Sons of the American Revolution, was called to the chair, and Dr. George J.Holmes, of the Sons of the Revolution, was chosen secretary. Eight organizations were present by their committees. A letter was presented respecting the preservation of Indian names, and another letter calling attention to the march of the French army, under Count Rochambeau, through the State, and asking if some means could not be found for identifying the sites of their encampments. A free and informal discussion was had, and finally...
