

I Am Disgusted with Christianity (Paperback)

By Corey L Reynolds

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Where has the church gone? The church was where a person could go for help and the churches willingness to help was and is not based upon if the person is a member or if they have or is giving money to that church? Where has the church gone? The church that would reach out to the sinner to show the love of God and not judge them based upon what they see. Where has the church gone? The church where it was more important to pursue the things of God rather than how many states or countries they can be seen in on television. The church now appears to be about how they look on the outside and not about the lives they are changing or saving on the inside. Now the pastors have private jets, multi-million dollar homes, drive luxury cars and claim to have millions in their bank accounts; yet their members are losing houses, cars, families and hope. All of this is supposedly being done in the name of God. I am disgusted with Christianity! This...
