Current studies show that in order to retire successfully, a person in their early thirties is going to need to bank nearly 1 million dollars by the time they are 65 if they hope to retire instead of working until the day they die. The importance of this statistic is compounded by the fact that nearly two-thirds of those in this age group are still living paycheck to paycheck and putting nothing aside for their future. But you bought this book so you're different-or...
