The disruptions of the war, & the struggles of the ensuing peace, were reflected in the music of the time: in Pierre Boulez's radical re-forming of compositional technique, in John Cage's move into zen music, in Milton Babbitt's settling of the serial system, & in the work and theories of Shostakovich, Stockhausen, Nono, Xenakis, & Berio. In this revised edition, Paul Griffiths shows how the initiatives of these composers & their contemporaries opened prospects that have continued to unfold. He examines the diverse directions taken by over 50 composers since 1960, offering a lively & comprehensive survey of the music of our time. * ". . . as impressive for its accuracy as for the clarity, acumen & wit of its writing." - Classical Music.
