Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Tracts of the American Tract Society, Vol. 4: General Series Dear reader - AS you may not understand properly what conversion is, I will first endeavor, by the help and blessing of God, to show you its nature. As it may be your case, that you expect mercy and favor with God, though you continue in your natural state, I would next prove the necessity of conversion; and lest you should make a most dangerous and destructive mistake, and imagine that you are converted when you are not, I would also lay before you the marks of the unconverted. But lest you should fear no harm, because you see none, and so continue satisfied in your present condition, I would show you the misery of the unconverted. To stir you up to seek the conversion of your heart, I would offer you some motives to it. And lastly, if you are convinced of your need of conversion, and are become anxious for it, I would direct you to some means in order to your obtaining it, and therewith your present and eternal salvation. I would show you the nature of conversion, both what it is not, and what it is. Your profession (f Christianity is not conversion. St. Paul says, it lies not in word, but in power. 1 Cor. 4: 20. Vol. IV. There were persons in Sardis and Laodicea that were Christians by profession, and had a name to live; yet because they had but a name, they were condemned by Christ. Your baptism is not a conversion. Many a person has been baptized, and yet been destitute of holiness. Wicked Ananias and Sapphira had both...
