A Year on the Train to Dallas (Paperback)

By Stephen Sanders

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Stephen Sanders is an award-winning poet from Fort Worth, Texas. He writes in many voices. He has written modern poetry while serving as the President of the Fort Worth Poetry Society. His first book, Characters: The Buffalo Soldier and Other Poems, contains, among other pieces, poetic tales of the West. He regularly appears as a member of the Seadog Slam, a pirate poetry group that performs at Renaissance festivals. Most recently, he writes as The Steampunk Poet and has published a volume of poetry in that genre. This book, all poems inspired, written or rewritten while traveling back and forth from Fort Worth to Dallas on the train, includes all of these various voices and more. Mike Baldwin, winner of two state level poetry manuscript contests, has this to say about Mr. Sander s work: Steve Sanders has found a great concept for a fine compilation of poems. The variety of subjects and forms in this collection provides a kaleidoscope of poetic impressions, from comic to creepy to profound. I nominate Sanders as the current champion of the seldom-seen Triolet,...
