His wife is still living and makes her home with her son, Enoch P. Webb. Dr. Webb was educated in the public schools and was graduated from Wayland Academy in 1892. He received his medical instruction in Rush Medical College in Chicago, obtaining his degree in 1897. He located immediately for practice in Beaver Dam, establishing his office here on June 1, 1897. He has met with increasing and gratifying success and has built up a large and growing practice. He is thoroughly and efficiently equipped in all the modern developments of the medical science and is an able physician. On the 18th of May, 1904, Dr. Webb was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Palmer, whose birth occurred on the nth of March, 1880. She is a daughter of Edwin C. Palmer. Dr. Webb is independent in politics. He served from 1898 to 1899 as city physician and did able and constructive work in this capacity. He is interested in the cause of education and was school commissioner for two years. He affiliates with the Baptist church. His practice is carried on carefully and scientifically and is increasing every year. He keeps in touch with developments and discoveries in the world of medical science and interchanges thoughts and ideas along these subjects with his colleagues as member of the Dodge County and Wisconsin Medical Societies and the American Medical Association. Dr. Webb is a physician of the...
