But I remember that it is out of the re?ections of individuals, and out Of their reaction to the changing course of events that first public Opinion and then history is made. If any significance be attached to what I Shall brie?y say in your presence, it can only be because it represents the attempt of one American who feels keenly the responsibility of his country and of its entire citizenship at this moment when the world stands at a crossroads in its path of progress. If we stand at that crossroads irresolute, paralyzed of word and will, history will have one story to tell. If we turn to the right and take the path that leads upward to new achievement and to lasting honor, it will have a very different story to tell. If we should turn to the left and follow the winding and rocky road that leads down to a darkening gloom - we know not where - history will have yet another record to make of the American people and of their capacity to represent civilization.
